qvalia

Peppol Academy

Part 3 – The Peppol networks basics

Welcome!

ABOUT QVALIA

Full-suite solution

3000+ connected companies

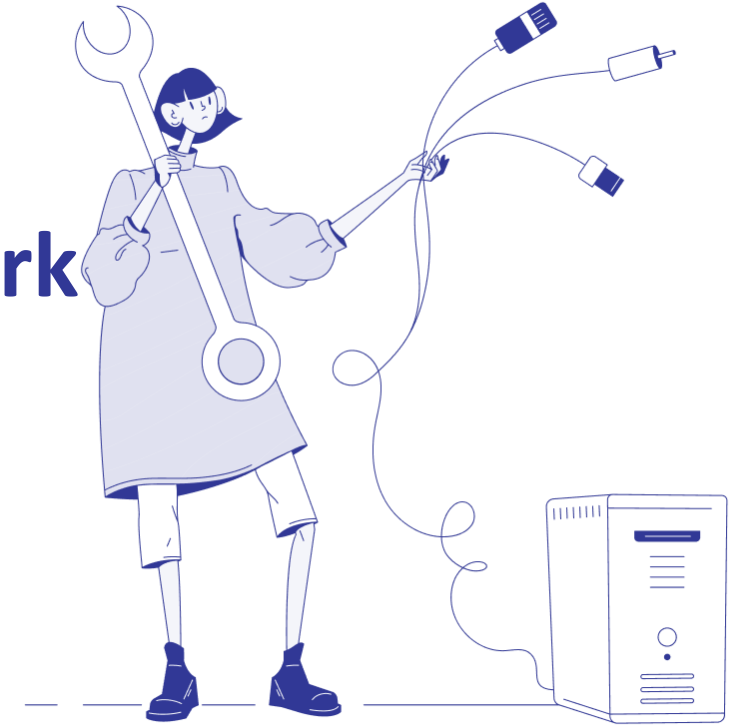
30+ countries

HQ Stockholm

Ari Caesar
+46 70 148 92 22
ari.caesar@qvalia.com

Business messaging networks: The basics

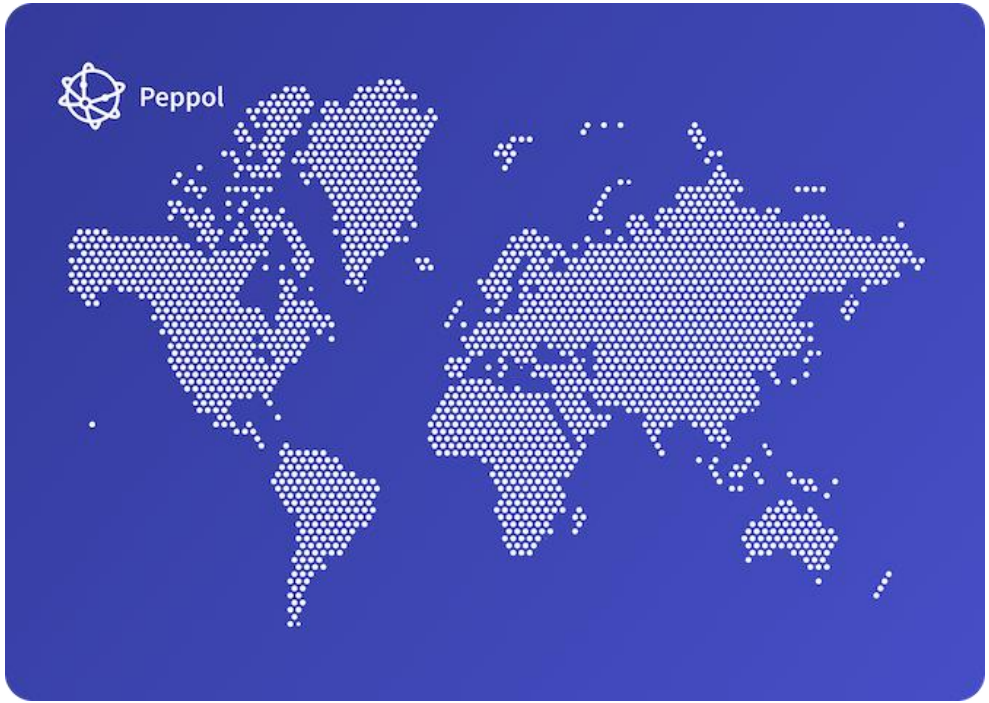
The closed network setup



The VAN process

1. Contract with an operator
2. Agreements between operators
3. Technical configurations
4. Format handling and conversions

How Peppol improves business transactions



Short background

Peppol service provider acts as the access point.

Peppol ID for distributing to the right recipient.

Full range of message types to capture complete processes.

Key components

Standardized formats

Common infrastructure

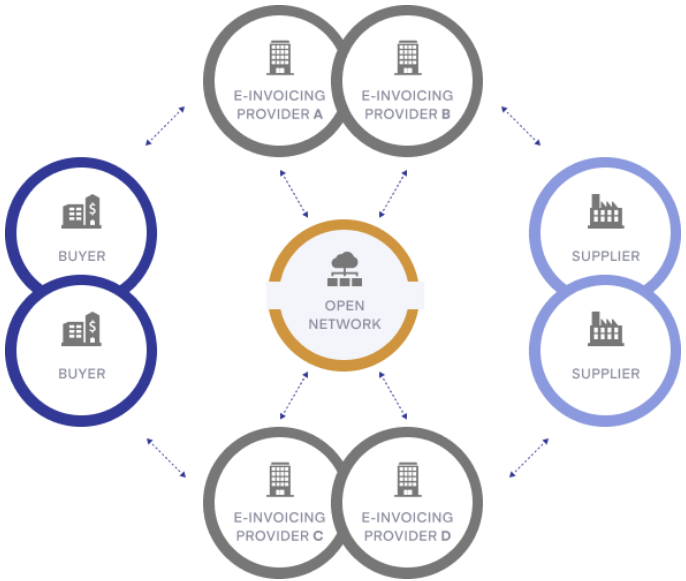
Central participant catalog

Common guidelines

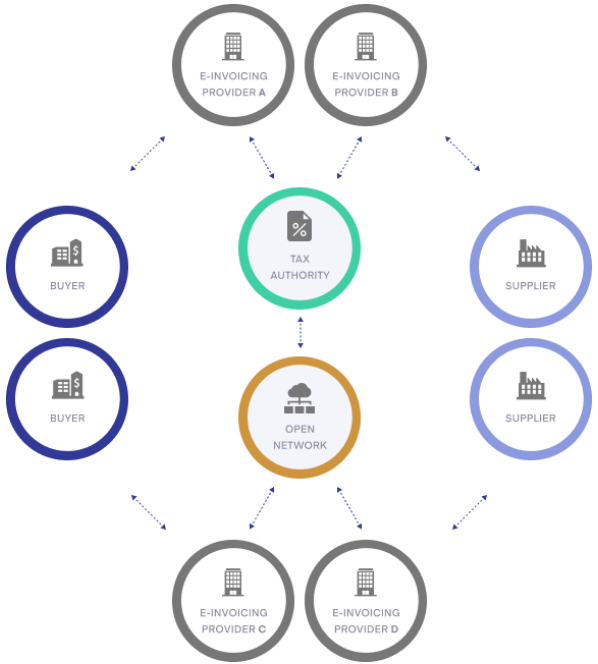
Governance

Exchange models for messages

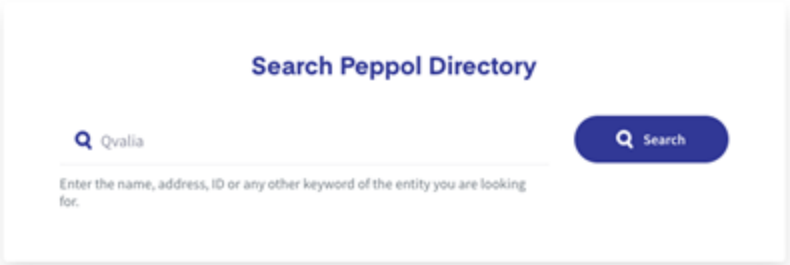
4-corner model

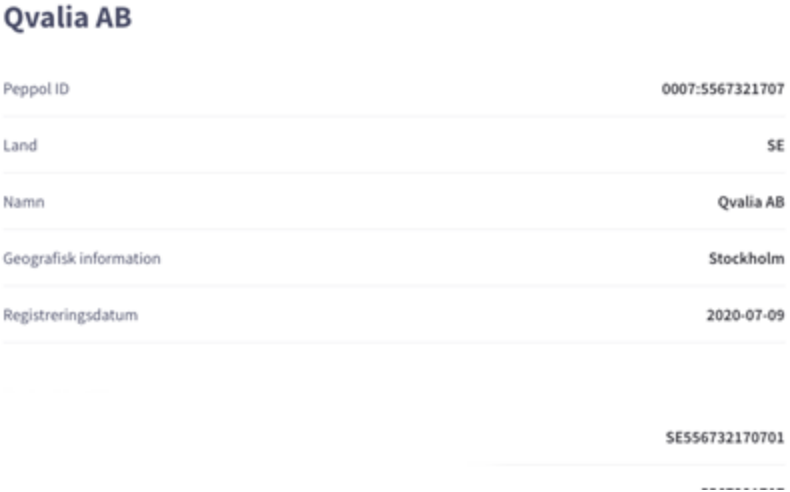


5-corner model



Peppol ID: The unique address





Example:

Prefix with organization number

0007:5567321707

Prefix with GLN

0088:1234567891234

Which messages and processes are supported?

Invoices
Orders
Credit notes
Invoice responses
Order responses
Agreements
Catalogs
Punchouts
…

Thank you!

Ari Caesar
+46 70 148 92 22
ari.caesar@qvalia.com

qvalia

Peppol Academy